Jet Grandma – Strong at 88!

88-year-old "Jet Grandma" Pan Xiu-Yun won four gold medals at the 2025 World Masters Games. She ran the 100m and 200m races and did the long jump and triple jump.

She stopped sports at age 22 but came back at age 63. She trained hard and joined many races in Taiwan and around the world.

She had knee pain and hurt her leg. She even stopped racing for 3 years. But she did not give up. She still ran and stayed strong.

At 74, she climbed the Himalayas, 5,416 meters high.

At 77, she biked around Taiwan in 9 days, more than 900 kilometers.

At 79, she climbed Kilimanjaro in Africa, 5,895 meters high.

Every morning, she plays tennis, runs, or rides a bike. Even when it rains, she exercises at home. She says, "I want to run until I'm 100!"

D. (47~50)

People have jobs. They always need knowledge and skills to get those jobs. One job doesn't need those. That is the job of a line stander.

A line stander waits in line with a lot of people. The line stander can wait for food, tickets, or a new cell phone. However, that thing isn't for the line stander. The thing is for other people. They don't want to wait in line, or they don’t have time. So, they pay the line stander to wait in line for them.

The job of a line stander isn't always easy. Line standers may have to wait in line for hours or even days. So, they may not be able to use the restroom. Also, line standers may have to wait in bad weather. They may have to deal with other people in line, too. Those people may not be polite to them. Line standers are OK with that. They can make money.

Anyone can be a line stander. You just need to like to wait in line.
