11. M: So, do you like “Max Burn”?

W: I really enjoy working out there. Their classes helped me lose 10 kilograms.

M: Yeah, now you look slim and pretty. Maybe I should be a member of “Max Burn,” too.

Question: What is “Max Burn”?

12. M: Do you want to buy anything to eat or drink before the movie?

W: Yes, but please look at the sign there.

M: It is OK. Maybe we can finish that before the movie.

W: That's a good idea. But I just want some water.

Question: What does the sign say?

13. Dear Sam,

Although you are very tired after school, you still need to help Mom with the housework. She works all day in the shoe factory, and she must also feel tired. I have to work day and night in the supermarket to make more money for our family. Please be a good boy and nice to our family.

Question: What does Sam need to do for his family?

14. M: I am a fan of your food. The steak tastes great; even the butter on the toast is yummy.

W: Most of our beef comes from Japan, and all of our butter is from France.

M: What about the apple pie?

W: Our cook makes and bakes apple pies every morning.

M: No wonder they are super delicious!

Question: Which is true?

15. W: Look! Those bad boys are attacking the poor dog. Let's stop them.

M: Before they do that, they never think about it carefully. They have to pay for their action.

W: You can say that again.
