Stacy's going to a potluck party. At the party, everyone has to prepare a dish. She isn't good at cooking, so she tries to find an easy recipe on the Net. She looked for the recipe for a while and got the one she thought she could make. Here is the recipe:

Easy Fried Rice

Ingredients:

- * 3 cups of cooked rice
- * 2 tablespoons of sesame(芝麻) oil
- * 1 cup of frozen peas(豆子) and carrots(胡蘿蔔)
- * 2-3 teaspoons of soy sauce (醬油)
- * 2 eggs, lightly beaten(打)
- * bacon, chicken, ham... whatever you like

Steps:

1. Preheat the pan or wok(鍋). Pour(倒入) sesame oil in the bottom.
2. Pour the beaten eggs. Scramble(炒) the eggs.
3. Add peas and carrots. (Put bacon, chicken, ham... if you like.) Mix the eggs with the vegetables.
4. Add the rice.
5. Pour soy sauce on top.
6. Stir(攪拌) and fry the rice and vegetables.

43. What might a potluck party be like?

- (A) Every guest needs to prepare a pot.
(B) All the guests have to cook at the party.
(C) The host will prepare everything for the guests.
(D) Each guest must bring his/her own dish.

44. Stacy has mixed the eggs with the vegetables. What should she do next?

- (A) Pour the eggs.
(B) Put the oil .
(C) Pour soy sauce.

My Small Steps is our interview series(系列). We were happy to be able to speak to the inspiring brother and sister duo(二人組), Skylar & Chloe behind Kids Can Cook Gourmet(美食家).

First, tell us a bit about yourself:

I'm Skylar and I'm 13 years old. I love to cook and experiment(實驗) in the kitchen. I also love gardening and learning about where my food comes from and how it's produced.

I'm Chloe and I'm 11 years old. I love the marketing and business side of things, but I'm also passionate(熱愛) about farm to table. I believe in learning about the foods you put into your body. I have always liked learning about business and helping my parents with ideas for marketing(行銷) their business and now our own.

My Small Steps: When did you first discover that healthy, active and/or eco-friendly(環境友善的) living was important to you?

Though we have always loved food and helping our mom cook, our passion(熱情) really began during our year of alternate(替代) schooling. We traveled around Europe in an RV for a year and visited all the fresh markets. During this year as part of my daily writing, I (Skylar) started writing recipes. And we are working hard to publish(出版) our cookbook. And I (Chloe) wrote the introduction, various Foodie(美食) blogs and was the official taste tester. This was such a great way to really learn about the different foods around Europe and how passionate the locals are about fresh and in-season foods.

46. What is the article mainly about?

- (A) Showing the world the recipes of delicious food.
(B) Natural food is good for our health.
(C) An interview about two young chefs.
(D) The cookbooks for kids.

47. How did they start to care about healthy, active and/or eco-friendly living?

- (A) They won the prize at Kids Can Cook.
(B) They traveled, learned and write about food in the fresh markets.

Amazing virtual reality school bus takes kids on an out-of-this-world adventure(冒險). A group of school kids went on the field trip of a life time when their school bus magically took them to the red planet.

In an unbelievable new virtual reality experience, the children got on a traditional-looking school bus in Washington DC. Little did they know that the windows of the bus had been replaced with computer screens.

A few minutes into the journey(旅程), the transparent(透明的) windows went dark and the world outside disappeared - only to be replaced, moments later, with a Martian(火星的) landscape.

"We get the kids on the bus, the screens go dark, Mars appears and they go crazy," said Claude Dareau, senior developer(研發人員) of the Field Trip to Mars experience. "Just seeing their reaction(反應) was wonderful. I'd only had a few hours' sleep and was shattered(擊毀). I definitely felt touched when I saw that."

48. What might be the topic of the article?

- (A) Rules on the School Bus
- (B) How to Use VR Technology
- (C) The Meaning of Virtual Reality
- (D) Field Trip to Mars

49. What does "replaced" mean?

- (A) raised
- (B) changed
- (C) lived
