9. M: Excuse me, is the bus going to Boston?

W: I am afraid we are going south.

M: Oh no! I should go north.

W: Don't worry, sir. You can get off at the next stop, and catch the bus to Boston.

M: Thank you for your help.

Q: Why does the man feel worried on the bus?

10. G: Class, today we're going to talk about some interesting insects. The first one is bees.

They are hard-working bugs and are always busy with making honey. When you see bees, you should walk away quickly or you will be bitten by them. The second one is ants, also hard-working animals. Like bees, ants live in groups. If food is too big for one ant to carry, other ants will come over and help move the food together.

Q: Which is true?

11. W: You're finally here. Do you know what time it is now? And why didn't you answer your cellphone?

M: Sorry. I missed the first train. I didn't get on the train until 9:30. And I left my cellphone at home. Besides, on the way here, I bought these flowers for you. It also took some time.

Q: What made the man late for the date?

12. M: Dear Sandra:

I'm fifteen. I have problems making friends with others. My classmates seldom invite me to join their activities. They don't seem to enjoy talking or playing with me. I really want to have someone to talk to. I feel lonely at home, too. My parents appear to be angry with me all the time. I guess that's because I always fail my tests. They want me to get into a good senior high school, but I know I'll let them down. I'm not happy. What can I do?

Blue Boy

Q: Which is true about Blue Boy?

13. G: Can you ask Nick if he will play basketball with us on the weekend?

B: Why don't you ask him yourself?

G: I'm not sure if he will understand my English. And I become very nervous when I speak to foreigners.

B: You speak English well. You should try it.

Q: Why doesn't the girl invite Nick by herself?

14.G: Do you have any idea if the garbage truck will come tomorrow?

B: Why do you ask? Doesn't it come every day at 9 p.m.?

G: It does, but a typhoon will come tomorrow.

B: Well, let's take all the garbage out tonight.

Q: What are they going to do?
