Pandas are beautiful animals with black and white hair. Most of them live in the mountain of South Western China. It is very sad that they are in danger. This means that there are not very many of them living today. There are about 1,000 pandas living in the wild. There are also 127 of them living in zoos in China, the United States, Mexico, Germany, Japan.
Pandas are very shy and they love to be alone. They don't even like to be with others. Pandas like to eat a lot of bamboo. They spend half of the day eating bamboo shoots and bamboo leaves every day. China is trying very hard to save the pandas.
