When I was twenty, I paid my bills in the bank, waited in a long line, and felt a little angry. When I was twenty, I shopped for clothes and shoes in department stores. It was so much fun. Now I'm forty. I surf the Net for information. I read E-books online. I meet different people online. Now I'm forty. I pay my bills online. I don't have to wait. I feel easy. Now I'm forty. I do online shopping for shirts, socks, and shoes. It is fun, too. However, I'm not very excited about it. There is something wrong. I don't have much chance to meet people face to face, seeing their smiles and their appearance. I feel a little down.

Q: What is true?
